

Program Report: Youth Parliament

Event Title: Youth Parliament

Date: April 25, 2024

Location: Arts Faculty, University of Delhi

Collaborators: Charan Sparsh Foundation, Yuva Hansraj

Introduction

The Youth Parliament held on April 25, 2024, at the Arts Faculty of the University of Delhi was a significant event aimed at engaging the youth in discussions on pressing national issues. This initiative, in collaboration with Charan Sparsh Foundation and Yuva Hansraj, brought together young minds from various colleges and universities to deliberate on the topic: "The Impact of CAA, NRC, UCC on Social Cohesion and Religious Harmony in India."

Objectives

1. To create a platform for youth to express their views on important socio-political issues.
2. To enhance understanding of the implications of CAA, NRC, and UCC on the fabric of Indian society.
3. To encourage healthy debate and discussion among participants from diverse backgrounds.
4. To award and recognize outstanding contributions from participants.

Chief Guests and Dignitaries

The event was graced by distinguished guests, including:

- Shri Naveen Shah, CMD of NDFC, Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment, Government of India
- Ms. Shikha Makkar, Assistant Professor, Ram Lal Anand College, University of Delhi
- Shri Nilabh Ranjan, Chief Advisor, Charan Sparsh Foundation
- Abhinav Pandey, Founder of Super Child Education India

Participation

The Youth Parliament witnessed an enthusiastic participation of 150 youths from various colleges and universities, reflecting a strong interest in discussing critical societal issues. The diverse representation enriched the discussions, allowing for varied perspectives and insights.

Key Highlights of the Event

1. Opening Ceremony:

- The event commenced with an inaugural address highlighting the importance of youth engagement in democratic processes.

2. Panel Discussions:

- The discussions revolved around the chosen topic, focusing on the implications of the Citizenship Amendment Act (CAA), the National Register of Citizens (NRC), and the Uniform Civil Code (UCC) on social cohesion and religious harmony.

- Participants presented their views, supported by research and personal experiences, fostering a lively and informed debate.

3. Cash Prizes:

- To incentivize participation and recognize exceptional contributions, a cash prize of ₹20,000 was awarded to the winners. This not only encouraged participants but also highlighted the significance of their efforts in addressing social issues.

4. Networking Opportunities:

- The event provided a platform for participants to connect with dignitaries, fostering relationships that could lead to future collaborations and initiatives aimed at youth empowerment.

Conclusion

The Youth Parliament proved to be a successful initiative that not only engaged the youth in meaningful discussions but also contributed to a greater understanding of important socio-political topics affecting the nation. The involvement of esteemed guests and the active participation of students showcased the commitment of the younger generation to contribute positively to society.

Moving forward, it is essential to continue such initiatives that empower youth voices and promote dialogue on critical issues. The insights gained from this event will serve as a foundation for further discussions and actions aimed at enhancing social cohesion and religious harmony in India.